Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Teach Democracy is known for a wide range of ongoing, direct programming for students from primarily underserved communities. In these programs, we emphasize active learning through deliberation, discussion, simulations, and role play. When civic content and skills are taught effectively, young people also develop civic dispositions including the belief in their responsibility to participate in democratic processes, the value of keeping up with current events, respecting one another, and valuing the rights of others.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

A conflict of interest policy has been approved by the board of directors. A conflict of interest disclosure statement including a list of major Teach Democracy vendors with whom the foundation transacted business during the previous year is furnished annually to each director, officer, and member of the executive staff of Teach Democracy. The forms are reviewed and signed by each member with any conflicts noted and returned to the Teach Democracy staff member who handles board affairs. This individual compiles any positive responses and reports them to the executive committee. In the event a conflict arises, the person with the conflict would recuse themselves from voting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

The organization has established a compensation committee of the board of directors, independent of management, which obtains comparative compensation information, reviews and approves executive compensation, and documents the results.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

Governing documents, conflict of interest policies, and financial statements are available to executive staff and the board of directors. Upon request from the general public the organization will provide access to these documents as required by law.
