

Constitutional Rights Foundation's

2005-2006 CALIFORNIA MOCK TRIAL PROGRAM

Errata and Case Supplements for

People v. Markson

October 27, 2005

People v. Markson

1. Page 13, line 41, replace “cherry-red” with “silver.”
2. Page 15, add stipulation “14. Dr. Choi and Dr. Stone have knowledge of and may testify to the fact that Taylor consumed chocolate-covered strawberries at 12:30 a.m. at Brook’s party, and to the description of the steering wheel belonging to Taylor’s 1963 Aston Martin X5 convertible.
3. Page 16, line 43, replace “An End to Passion” with “Murder by Monoxide.”
4. Page 17, line 26, add “ and any bracketed information from Alex, Detective Green and Jes’ statements.
5. Page 39, line 6, replace “Taylor” with “Jes”
6. Page 34, line 45, replace “The bedroom window was cracked open that night,” with “My bedroom windows were cracked open that night,”
7. Page 15, add stipulation “15. For the purpose of the pretrial argument, Exhibit A may be used.”
8. Page 15, add stipulation “16. At the time Jes' consent was given to Detective Green, Jes was waiting by the front of Jes' mansion.”
9. Delete erratum number four and replace with:
Page 17, under Sources, add to the allowable sources for the pretrial argument, “witness statements of Jes Markson, Alex Palmer, and Detective Eliot Green.”
10. Page 23, line 22, replace “most” with “about.”